

Detlef Scholzen

We would like to introduce you to a German actor, who will soon be on US silver screens. Hollywood contacted him already and projects are in the planning stages. He is currently acting in "Alone in a Strange World" an autobiographical film about a little Congolese boy, who escaped the civil war and ended up establishing a life in Germany. The film has been officially selected at the 75th International Festival in Salerno, Italy, and at the Toronto International Black Film Festival 2022 to great success. Detlef Scholzen, an actor to watch, has been also the main character in successful commercials for the famed car manufacturer Porsche-Germany, the German Military, and the US equivalent to AAA, the German ADAC. Detlef can be seen in the German TV series "Krass Schule - Die Jungen Lehrer" (High School Krass - The Young Teachers), which was aired for 4 seasons until COVID hit the German film industry.

Detlef Scholzen visited New York City and shot with Savoir Faire photographer Udor for this edition.

